 - Negotiations is an important skill and being a part of the placement committee I have learned a lot of negotiations and equipped me with an important skill.

PROJECTS

- Hybrid Analysis of Stock Market Data
Group project
 - Developed an intelligent system which can predict future stock prices based on analysing previous price range and the news flowing in the market. My role was to collect data and design logic for stock price range.
- Microprocessor based Traffic Light Controller
Group project
 - The fundamental idea of this project is to control the traffic. It can be used to avoid the vehicular collisions and traffic jams. This project is just a one way traffic controller, although it can be further modified as well. My role was to collect the theoretical data and to design circuit of this controller.
